

Lashley Insurance Agency, Inc.

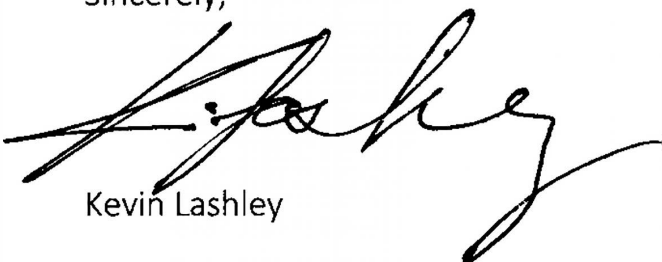

To whom it may concern,

I would like to tell whomever reads this recommendation exactly how pleased I am with Samm Consulting, and in particular Mel Clemmons, and Nicole Anderson. Making the decision to sell my book of business was not an easy one, but after speaking with Mel, I know that I was making the right decision and I knew I would get the fastest results.

The entire process is handled by Mel and Nicole, all you have to do is literally sign a few documents here and there. I know of other agents that have tried to sell on their own and faced numerous hardships, but with Samm Consulting handling every twist and turn I had no worries and my book was placed with a very reputable buyer and closed on in a matter of 3 months.

I would fully recommend you place your trust in Samm Consulting! Mel and Nicole will not let you down!

Sincerely,
